Dear Parents and Carers,

On Thursday, Mrs Glynn welcomed families and parents for an information and support afternoon all about ADHD. The afternoon was enlightening for our attendees, as they were shown ADHD from the perspective of their child and could share stories, challenges and successes with one another. Thank you, Mrs Glynn, for opening our doors to the wider community, to enable us to understand our children better. Please look out for the next event!

Also on Thursday, we held our annual MacMillan cake sale. This charity is close to many of our hearts, as most of us have loved ones whose lives have been touched by cancer. Thank you for those that have supported the event and a special thanks to Mrs Alger for arranging it.

Have a lovely weekend

Regards, Ms Levett

A big shout out!

Along with the recent school improvements: The Science Emporium, The Art Gallery, The Tipi, The Life Space, I would like to say a huge thank you to our fantastic team at Howbridge. This year, they are thinking outside of the box, offering your children some incredible learning opportunities. This is a team to be proud of and a team that strive to understand our children as well as they can, to broaden life experiences and ignite a love of learning.
